Two arrested for Breaking into Vehicle

February 22, 2013

Suspects Tevin Raheem Rivers and Zackery Daniel Houge have been arrested for their involvement with a vehicle break in that occurred at Lawton Station early Thursday morning.

On Thursday, February 21, 2013 at approximately 2:00 a.m. officers were called out to the area of Lawton Station in reference to a report of a theft from a vehicle. Bluffton Police Officers located suspect Tevin Rivers outside his residence located at 2251 Blakers Boulevard (Mill Creek Subdivision). Rivers was found to be in possession of items that were reported stolen from the vehicle.

Bluffton Police Investigators continued with the investigation and discovered that Zackery Houge was also involved in the incident. Investigators from the Bluffton Police Department and the Beaufort County Sheriff's Office went to Houge's home and served a search warrant for the remainder items that were missing. Houge was subsequently arrested for his involvement with the incident.

The Bluffton Police Department is continuing its investigation into the incident to determine if there are other victims. Anyone with information is encouraged to contact Detective Henry Criss at 843-706-4516.

The Bluffton Police Department requests that citizens lock their vehicle and store all valuables out of sight while it is unattended.
